

I appreciate the privacy law as it is. I am opposed to any changes that would weaken the current law. It is nice to be able to enjoy an evening with my family without the constant bank card solicitations.